Selections for space should be made as they appear on the floor plan. If none of your selections are available, space will be assigned as near to preferences as possible.

All companies wishing to exhibit at NASS Spring Break must be in good financial standing with NASS. Submission of an application is considered an agreement that companies will abide by the rules and conditions outlined in this prospectus. NASS may require ancillary terms under this agreement, such as the Exhibitor Services Kit. If there is any conflict between such terms of this contract, the terms of this contract shall prevail.

Show management requires that all exhibit setup be completed prior to the opening of the exhibit hall. Booths must be staffed at all times. Although the exhibition is primarily available as a source of information, sales may take place as long as they are done in a business-like manner and applicable sales tax rules are followed.

NASS also reserves the right to assign alternate space if it is in the best interests of the exhibit show.

The exhibit hall floor plan is currently being designed. Cindy Tomala will call you to discuss booth options once your application is submitted. A floor plan will be available in early January.
